Data Controller
For data protection purposes, the Council is the controller, any questions should be addressed to the Head of Governance and Scrutiny Support, Civic Hall, Leeds, LS1 1UR.
The Council's data protection officer is Louise Whitworth, Head of Information Management and Governance [contact details].

Necessary Processing

Legal Basis for Processing
In accordance with sections 29 & 30 of the Localism Act 2011, the Monitoring Officer is required to establish and maintain a register of interests, to ensure that it is available for inspection and that it is published on the authority's website, and you are required to notify the Monitoring Officer of the information in sections 1 to 7 of this form.

Our processing of this information is therefore necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, specifically for discharging our duties under Sections 29 & 30 of the Localism Act 2011. If your data includes special category data, the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, namely for the proper discharge of our statutory duties mentioned above, and is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest (promoting and maintaining high standards of conduct by our elected Members), and we have an appropriate policy document in place.

How Your Data Will Be Processed
We will process your personal data for the purpose of maintaining a register of interests of Members of the Council, including securing that a copy of the register is available for inspection at the Civic Hall, Leeds at all reasonable hours, and that the register is published on the Council's website.

In accordance with Section 32 Localism Act 2011, the Monitoring Officer will maintain a record of any interest which she has agreed should be treated as a sensitive interest but this information will not be available for public inspection or published to the Council's website.

We will store your data until you cease to be an elected Member. Information relating to an interest which you cease to have will be stored by the Monitoring Officer (but not available to the public) for a period of 3 years.

Who Your Data Will be Shared With
The recipients of your personal data are members of the public generally.

Your Rights
You[11] have the right to request from us, access to and rectification or erasure of your data, or restriction of processing, or to object to processing as well as the right to data portability. You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.

Processing by Consent
In addition to the information you are required to provide under Sections 29 & 30 of the Localism Act 2011, you may voluntarily choose to include other interests in this notification in part 8 of this form.

Please note that as regards interests which you choose to include in this notification and include in the register voluntarily, your signature at the end of this form will be taken to be your consent to the processing of this personal data for the purposes, and in the manner set out in this form including securing that a copy of the register is available for inspection at the Civic Hall, Leeds at all reasonable hours, and that the register is published on the Council's website.

[11] or your spouse or civil partner, or person with whom you are living as spouse or civil partner so far as the information is their personal information

If any such interest pertains to another person, then you will need to obtain a clear indication of their consent, and send this to the Monitoring Officer with this form.

Please also note that you (or anyone else to whom such an interest pertains) have the right to withdraw your/their consent at any time, by notifying the Monitoring Officer as indicated at the end of this form. Any person from whom you obtain consent, must also be informed before they give their consent, that they have the right to withdraw their consent at any time in the same way.
